

Section 7 - Dinosaur Enigma

Mysterious dinosaur shares characteristics of both meat eating theropods and plant eating ornithomorphs. This section features amazing discoveries by paleotechnician Terry Manning of fossilized embryos of an unusual theropod dinosaur. Among other enigmatic features, it ate both meat and plants and laid round eggs instead of elongated eggs typical of theropods.

Displays, images and interactives in this section

- Dinosaur Enigma Section Panel
- Hatching a Mystery Panel
- Artwork by Luis Rey (at right)
- A collection of real eggs
- Cast nest for touching (below)
- Therizinosaur model

